

MUSEUM DIVISION

Books & Stationery

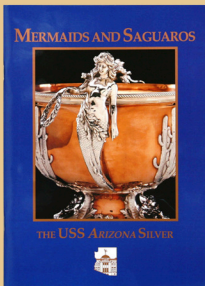

Under The Copper Dome

by Michael Carman, former director of the Arizona Capitol Museum

A detailed account of the rich history of the Arizona Capitol building from the initial design in the late 1800's to modern day. Carman has captured anecdotes that bring the Capitol to life.

Item #5188

Cost: $4.95

Mermaids And Saguaros: The USS Arizona Silver

by Maxine Edwards, former Curator of the Arizona Capitol Museum

One of the finest collections ever produced for a U.S. battleship, this book tells the story of the silver's creation and is a catalog of color photographs and technical data on these artifact. The entire set is on display at the Arizona Capitol Museum.

Item #2859

Cost: $9.95

Arizona Capitol Note Cards

Historic Arizona Capitol pen and ink drawing by local artist Richard Nearing. Each folded 5 ½ by 4 ½" blank parchment note card includes the building's history on the back. Box of 8 with envelopes.

Item #4303

Cost: $8.00

Portfolio and Business Card Case

As a set or individually, this is the ultimate gift for the busy executive. The leather portfolio and business card case in whisky brown (featured) or classic black are each embossed with the Arizona state seal. The portfolio measures 12 ½" x 9 ½" and includes a notepad, pockets and fabric lining.

The lined card case measures 2 ½" x 4 ½".

Please specify color when ordering.

Portfolio: Item # 5153 brown Item # 6186 black

Cost: $28.95

Card Case: Item # 2242 brown Item # 6483 black

Cost: $10.95

Go to Museum Store homepage for Order Form